Odd Fellow's Dedication Date Set for December 7

Splendid New Home Will be Dedicated in Presence of Big Gathering of Odd Fellows---Home an Attractive One Equalled by Few Fraternal Buildings in Central Ohio.

Thursday, December 7th, at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon, the magnificent new building owned by Temple Lodge, I. O. O. F., will be dedicated to Odd Fellowship with all the impressiveness of the splendid ceremonies of the order, and by Grand Master of Ohio A. C. Bachtel and C. H. Lyman, Grand Secretary of Ohio. Preparations are now on foot for a royal good time, and not only have all lodges in the county, but those in adjoining counties, been invited, together with all of the grand lodge officers of the state, and ex-grand lodge officers. More than a thousand members are expected to be present.

In the afternoon of the day of dedication a parade will take place in which all members will participate. Supper will be served in the evening at the elegant dining parlors on the second floor of the new building, the cost being 25c to all. This, like the dedication services, will be open to the general public, and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

After supper the First degree will be conferred upon a class of candidates in the old lodge rooms at Memorial hall. Imperial Degree staff will confer the degree. Messrs. W. E. Sprenger, E. C. Hamilton and J. A. Edge are the committee in charge.

The splendid home of the lodge on the corner of Fayette and Market streets is the pride of every member and is a monument to the progressiveness and spirit of Odd Fellowship in the city. The building will, not be entirely finished and equipped until sometime next month, but the lodge will take possession next week.

The first floor of the new building consists of one of the best business rooms in the city. An ideal basement goes in connection with the room. The structure is heated by a hot water system, the boiler of which is enclosed in a fire proof room in the basement. Every precaution is taken against fire and a nozzle and 50 feet of hose is kept on each floor for instant use.

The second floor contains the best dining room in the city, together with kitchen, awaiting parlors, and toilet rooms. The dining room proper is 42 by 56 feet, well lighted and with a handsome steel ceiling that adds attractiveness to the big room.

The third floor, which contains the elegant lodge room and numerous waiting rooms, is the ideal of a lodge home, and so arranged that it offers every comfort and convenience to members of the order; for conferring the ranks to the best advantage, and for every purpose for which a lodge room is used.

The room is 42 by 64 feet free from pillars and posts. A platform some ten inches in height extends around each side of the room, together with balconies above. The front, or stage is attractively arranged upon an elevation. The floor space for conferring the ranks is large enough to permit the largest teams to work with ease.

The entire structure represents one of the most attractive Odd Fellow lodge buildings in Central Ohio, and is not only the pride of the lodge, but a credit to the city.

CHRYSANTHEMUMS

Remarkable Showing of the Enormous Fall Flowers by Local Floral Concern.

The Robert Buck Floral gardens are presenting a gorgeous chrysanthemum show for Thanksgiving that is well worth going miles to see. The three green houses are all full of magnificent chrysanthemums, specimens that are absolutely without rivals among the florists in our large cities. It is the largest and finest display these noted gardens have yet made and the hundreds cut each day seem to be hardly missed from the mass of bloom.

The Buck chrysanthemums have a big reputation and bring the top notch price in the flower markets of Cincinnati and other cities, the florists admitting that these growers have all others beaten. The chrysanthemums are retailed here at the sale in the city, customers being favored in the city, customers being favored ored here.

On Monday 450 blooms were shipped to Cincinnati and over 18,000 have been cut this season.

Among the finest specimens are the "Golden Chadwick," the splendid golden blossom that is only rivalled by the "Improved Chadwick". The latter chrysanthemum has been propagated by Mr. Jansen, of the Buck floral gardens, and is changed from the original white to a lovely flower tinged with pink. It will be put on the market for other growers next year. The "Merry Christmas", a snowy white, and the Jean Ward, pink, are among the finest specimens.

A half green house full of chrysanthemums is being kept back for Christmas.

Many visitors have been out to the Buck Floral Gardens this week and others are enthusiastic over the Thanksgiving display in Blackmer & Tanquary's window.

Our town is justly proud of her splendid floral gardens, owned and operated by Mrs. Robert Buck, and the prestige that they give to Washington.

Entire change of program for tomorrow, Thursday, at 3 p. m. Thanksgiving Matinee, to which children 14 years and under will be admitted at 5c.

A charming pre-nuptial affair Tuesday afternoon was a miscellaneous shower, given by Miss Rose Noble for Miss Maude Shoop, whose marriage to Mr. Charles Ford, of Newburg, O., takes place December the seventh.

The rooms were beautifully embellished with shaggy white chrysanthemums and greenery and the shower was effectively arranged to fall from an overhanging basket of white and green.

Miss Ruth Fultz sang, "I Love You Truly," after which Miss Mabel Caldwell played the Lohengrin wedding march, while Miss Florence Looft-bourrow led in the bride-elect and pulled the ribbons of the basket, which loosened a shower of lovely gifts.

Miss Shoop, who was wearing a handsome gown of white broadcloth, with bands of pale blue, responded gracefully to the good wishes of the group of girls crowding around her. A bright little magazine contest was also enjoyed. Miss Bess Shoop winning the prize, an embroidered guest towel and presenting it to Miss Shoop.

An elaborate two course luncheon was served. Mrs. John Noble, Mrs. Mary Brownell, Mrs. Willard Martin and Miss Florence Looftbourrow assisted in the delightful hospitalities of the afternoon.

There were thirty guests. Miss Marie Beatty, of Selden, the only one from out of town.

Celebrate Fifty-ninth Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Snider celebrated their fifty-ninth wedding anniversary Tuesday, November the 28th at their beautiful country home on the Greenfield pike, where all their long and happy married life has been spent.

Neither Mr. nor Mrs. Snider are very strong and there was no attempt made to entertain. The day was quietly spent with their daughter, Mrs. Clara Snider.

Mr. and Mrs. Snider are probably the oldest couple in Fayette county. Their golden wedding was celebrated in elaborate fashion nine years ago and many of the friends who delighted them on that joyous occasion are extending congratulations on the 59th anniversary.

Rev. John King, of the Sugar Grove M. E. church performed the marriage ceremony.

Pipe Line An Obstruction

Natural Gas Pipe Line Furnishing Washington With Gas Said to Infringe on Right-of-Way of New Road Improvement.

The improvement of the Devalon road under the direction of the State Highway commissioner, may call for some radical changes along the path of improvement, the principal one of which is the moving of a portion of the five-inch natural gas main which furnishes Washington with gas.

The road in question extends from the Lewis pike to the creek bridge immediately west of Bloomingburg, and is paralleled by the natural gas mains. Owing to the manner in which the pipe line was laid, it is from one to 12 feet from the center of the pike, and as the new road will be constructed of macadam 14 feet in width, quite a section of the pipe would thus be covered over, and as the State Highway commissioner is said to object to building over the old pipe because of damage which may result in making repairs on the line, a large amount of the pipe may be ordered removed and placed not closer than eight feet to the center of the road.

Resident Engineer, Frank M. Kennedy, who was appointed by the State Highway commissioner to do the engineering and make an accurate drawing of the road to be improved, has the drawing almost completed, and is in a position to talk intelligently upon the conditions as they exist and the obstacles encountered.

Mr. Kennedy pointed out on the map, or drawing, where the pipe line could be termed an obstruction, and said that most of the line which is near the center of the road had probably been so laid because the gravelled portion of the road was not in the center of the right-of-way in many places. He said that in all probability the pipe, where closer than eight feet to the center of the grade, or right-of-way, would have to be set back to the eight foot limit.

It is obvious that it would be impractical to build the macadam part of the road over the gas main, because of the damage which would result in moving or making repairs in the pipe line. It would also be dangerous to use the steam roller over the old pipe. A number of fences are too close, but no difficulty will be experienced as new fences will be constructed along some parts of the road.

A number of telephone poles must also be moved back to the limit line. The actual work on the road will commence next spring or summer, cost will be in the neighborhood of $13,000 for the four miles.

The drawing now being completed by Engineer Kennedy is 24 feet in length, and shows the road in detail even each tree, gas pipe, telephone pole, kind of fence, bridges, culverts, elevations, and the distances from each object to the middle of the road.

A LIVING ON ONE ACRE.

With the whole world embarrassed by the high cost of living problem, the declaration coming from people in Southern California that they can live in comfort and raise a family on one acre of land is attracting wide attention. In that section is a small colony known as the Little Landers of San Ysidro (pronounced Isidro), where all of the agricultural holdings are small, many of them as small as one acre. Among the colonists are teachers, college professors, retired business men, literary people—a class of people of intelligence, if not of means. Having solved the question of contentment with a little, these people have proposed to the approaching exposition management that they be allowed to demonstrate the manner of making a living on one acre. They propose establishing three one-acre farms at once, in order that the fruit trees, grape vines, berry bushes, asparagus, and other things requiring time to develop, may be ready by the time the exposition opens. The exposition management adopted the idea and little farms will be laid out and improved.

The outcome of the proposed demonstration of the colony of workers as to just what the possibilities of production of an acre of ground are, will be watched with interest not only by the visitors to the Panama Exposition but will be awaited with interest by people all over the country.

The time is coming when this country, big as it is, in territorial extent, will prove insufficient to permit the waste of land which has been indulged in.

Perhaps not in this generation or the next will land be scarce in this country but the day when broad and fertile acres were to be had in quantities for the mere taking has passed forever and land everywhere is valuable.

Capital is seeking investment in the permanent security that the real estate affords, and this shifting of capital from industrial stocks to real estate has served to permanently boost prices of land.

People of the middle and western states have seen land values increase three over in the last quarter of a century not owing to booms but due entirely to the wholesome market for acres to cultivate.

The man or men who can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the profligate American land tillers that one acre will produce as much as twenty did before, and that an increase of labor and brain force will make up for the decrease in acres to till, will indeed have performed a valuable service to the future American agriculturalists.

THE "NEW" GRANDMA

Grandma Ferguson took on her lap William Henry who woke from his nap.

As William looked he forgot to go, And the more he looked his wonder grew.

He saw no wrinkles in grandma's face; He saw no specs or cap or lace.

He saw no gown both plain and straight, He saw no knitting early or late.

He saw no shoes that they used to wear, He saw no thin or whitened hair.

And as William gazed both up and down He saw instead a directoire gown.

He saw a high Napoleon hat, Military heels and things like that;

And more than that, a laughing face In which there was no grandma trace.

And William pondered long and deep As he snuggled close for another sleep.

He gurgled low in his baby talk, As nurse came in from her daily walk;

"It's certain that I am extremely new, But so indeed is this grandma, too."

—Drury Underwood, in Chicago Evening Post.

DID WHAT SHE HOPED.

It is a real pleasure to find that something you have bought is just as good as you hoped it would be, and Mrs. Charles Proper of West Scranton, Pa., writes a letter to tell others her experience. She says:

"I was all run down and very weak, and had been so for three years. I am sure that Vinol has helped me very much, for four bottles of it have brought back my strength, which is just what I was told it would do."

When we recommend Vinol for all weak and run-down people, and those who have stubborn coughs, lack of appetite, sleeplessness and nervous conditions, we do so because we are absolutely convinced that it is just what they need. Then if Vinol does not satisfy them perfectly we give back the money. You ought to try Vinol if you wish to be strong and well for you take no risk at all. Blackmer & Tanquary.

sumed witness Barker, "but when the annual message of 1905 went to congress Roosevelt recommended most of those things. I wrote to President Roosevelt and told him what I had heard and that I had thought the man had lied, but now I must believe that he had not. It was the only letter of mine Mr. Roosevelt ever failed to answer."

Barker also made the statement that Roosevelt during the panic of 1907, against his own judgment, followed the advice of Knox, Cortelyou and Root, thereby depositing the government surplus in New York banks instead of outside cities. According to Barker it broke the country, but saved the gamblers.

Calls It Nonsense.

New York, Nov. 23.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt was shown the synopsis of Wharton Barker's testimony before the senate committee on interstate commerce, in which Colonel Roosevelt's name figured prominently. He read the statement carefully and then declared: "I would as soon discuss a pipe dream with an out patient of bedlam as discuss such nonsense."

findings of the board. It is known that the board will recommend reductions in the woolen schedule. Notwithstanding the importance of the tariff issue, the president will devote an equal amount of effort to the trust question. It is predicted by some that Mr. Taft will put his trust legislation at the head of his legislative program for the session.

The special message on the tariff will be the first to follow the trust law message. Then will come other messages dealing with the railroad securities question, the Alaskan situation, the report of the postoffice commission on the second-class mail rate and the parcels post, then a message upon the report of the economy commission and probably one dealing generally with the work of the executive departments.

Well-known Hiker Arrives in Town

Gottfried Rodrigues, the young champion pedestrian from Amsterdam, Holland, who has attained a world wide reputation for his long and rapid walks, arrived in this city Wednesday, and has attracted much attention. He will appear as a special drawing card at the Palace theater Wednesday and Thursday nights. Rodrigues is 24 years of age, of athletic build, and is now on his walk around the world. He is a globe trotter in reality, and apparently never tires of walking. He is accompanied by Lieutenant Herbert Nordwall, late of the standing army of Holland, and who saw service in the Boer war. Lieutenant Nordwall arrived Tuesday.

Rodrigues does not smoke, drink or use tobacco. He was formerly leading baritone with the famous La Fontaine's Holland French Opera Co., in Holland.

This young pedestrian holds championship records in a dozen different nations, and is without doubt the world's greatest walker for one of his age.

Taft the Nominee Says Gen. Keifer

Ex-Congressman from this district, Gen. J. Warren Keifer, Springfield, in an interview published in Monday's Springfield Sun stated that notwithstanding the chaotic state of affairs in politics that President Taft will be the Republican nominee.

He also expressed the belief that William Jennings Bryan is planning himself for entrance in the race on the Democratic ticket, and that Bryan has the backing of a number of leaders, particularly in the South.

Regarding his own affairs politically, Gen. Keifer said that whatever he did regarding the congressional race would be from the viewpoint of helping his party in the Seventh district, and that he did not know whether he would enter the race next year, or keep out of the fight.

The Reason For Equal Suffrage

Women's Voices Wanted In

Laws Made For Them

By Mrs. EMMELINE PANKHURST, English Woman Suffrage Leader

YOU cannot escape the much debated question of woman suffrage. You must make up your mind on ONE SIDE OR THE OTHER, and it is becoming increasingly difficult to make up your mind on any but one side.

Many misunderstand our aims even as yet. We do not seek to enfranchise all women arbitrarily or any particular class of women. We merely want the qualification to be the same for women as for men. We desire that sex shall cease to be a reason for disfranchisement when it does not relieve of responsibility. We are TAXED ALIKE, and the SAME OBEDIENCE TO LAW is exacted of us as of men. If we break the law we are not exempt from punishment because we are women. In fact, there are frequently SPECIAL LAWS FOR WOMEN, restricting their rights and providing punishment for infractions in spite of the fact that the women had no voice in the making of them.

REASONS WHY THE ULTIMATE SUCCESS OF THE MOVEMENT IS INEVITABLE ARE THE INCREASING AMOUNT OF LEGISLATION AFFECTING MY SEX AND ALSO SOCIAL AFFAIRS. IN BOTH INSTANCES NO PERMANENTLY BENEFICIAL LAWS CAN BE DRAFTED WITHOUT THE KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIENCE ON THE SUBJECTS THAT WOMEN ALONE POSSESS.

Reckless Driver Found

Colored Man Who Ran Auto in Rig on Jamestown Pike Some-time Ago Found Living in Dayton.

Efforts of Clinton county authorities to locate the colored man who ran into a rig containing Ed Bone and his son on the Jamestown pike near Jamestown some ten days ago, have met with success, and the negro who drove the machine was discovered to be a "flunky" who had stolen the machine of his employer in order to take a joy ride.

The identity of the reckless autoist was discovered by making a round of all the Dayton auto repair shops. At one place a damaged machine answering the description of the one that ran into and demolished the Bone vehicle was found. Upon locating the owner it was learned that the machine had been wrecked by a colored "flunky" who had stolen it out for a joy ride. The owner of the machine, who was forced to pay $100 to repair his machine, fired the colored man on the spot and it is thought by the Dayton police that he has left the city. However he is well known there and will be arrested whenever he returns.

Says Money Is Pledged For Traction Extension

Financial End of Proposed Extension of Springfield and Washington Traction Said to Be Taken Care of.

Representative Louis M. Day, of Chillicothe, has made public part of the contents of a letter received Monday from Mr. George W. Baker of this city, in which he claims that the money for extending the road from South Charleston to Washington, is forthcoming, and that after the road is constructed to this point, he feels certain that it will be easy to extend the work to Chillicothe.

Mr. Baker went to Bainbridge on business Tuesday morning, and efforts to communicate with him regarding the information contained in the letter failed.

Mr. Day, to whom the letter was written, is the man who has been assisting in securing the extension of the road to Chillicothe, and who, with other prominent men, has secured practically all of the right of way from Chillicothe to New Holland, so that no difficulty will be experienced when the road is financed so that it can be constructed to Chillicothe.

It is further stated that Mr. Baker informed Mr. Day that as soon as the road was constructed as far as this city that the financial matters can be easily arranged as soon as the part to Washington is finished.

People Like Shank's Big Turkeys

Indianapolis Mayor Cuts Price of Thanksgiving Birds.

Indianapolis, Nov. 29.—Mayor Shank and six assistants sold live turkeys and chickens in front of Tomlinson hall while three of his assistants sold dressed poultry inside the market house. When the count was taken it was found something more than 500 live turkeys, 55 dressed turkeys, 200 live chickens, 180 live ducks and a large amount of dressed chickens had been sold. The mayor's sale caused poultry dealers inside the market to come down on their prices, but the mayor got the business.

Gotham Jury Sets Woman Free

New York Jury Declares Slayer of Husband Insane at Time.

New York, Nov. 29.—Mrs. Frances O'Shanghnessy, who slew her faithless husband to "save his soul," was acquitted, the jury declaring that she was insane at the time of the killing, but sane now.

Justice Foster, however, remanded the woman back to the Tombs for examination by alienists to convince him that she is now in a normal mental condition.

Charged With Bribery Of Jurors

Man Arrested For Alleged Tampering With McNamara Juror.

Los Angeles, Nov. 29.—Bert Franklin, former deputy United States marshal here and now chief investigator for the McNamara defense, was arrested by Samuel Brown, chief investigator for the prosecution, on a charge of attempting to bribe G. N. Lockwood, a prospective juror. Brown asserted that he and Detectives Jerko, Onz, Campbell and Homes saw Franklin pass $500 to Lockwood at the corner of Third and Main streets. Lockwood was also arrested.

Murderess Makes Awful Confession

Negro Woman Killed Ten Persons With Ax.

Lafayette, La., Nov. 29.—Clementine Barnebat, 18, a negress, confessed that she last Sunday night killed Norbert Randall, his wife and four children with an ax, and also murdered the Andrus family of four last February.

The girl laughed hysterically when admitting the crime. "My father helped me kill the Andrus family," she said, "but I killed the Randalls alone."

The Barnebat girl is deaconess in the Church of Sacrifice and the police believe the Randall and Andrus families were killed for disobeying the church's orders.

AVIATOR FOWLER HAS CLOSE CALL

Texas Bull Demolishes Wings of His Aeroplane.

Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 29.—After having battled with eagles while crossing the Sierras, the biplane of Robert G. Fowler, who is flying across the continent, had a battle with a Texas bull. Fowler was compelled to alight in a field 15 miles from Fort Worth on account of high wind. The farmer who saw the bull charging the biplane says the bull at first shook its head threateningly at the strange craft, then pawed the earth and rushed forward. The farmer beat the bull off with a club, but not before it had broken the two wings of the aeroplane.

An Old Time Remedy That Darkens the Hair

From time immemorial, sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost everyone knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair, for curing dandruff and falling hair, and for making the hair grow.

In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patron with a ready-to-use product, skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. The Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this sort, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

If you have dandruff, or if your hair is turning gray or coming out, don't delay, but get a bottle of this remedy today, and see what a few days' treatment will do for you.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

Special agent, Brown's Drug Store.

Football Game Thanksgiving Day

The Old Guard Against the Present High School Team—The Veterans and the Present Heroes Will Hook Up in a Hard Fight.

The football season closed last Saturday when the defenders of the White and Blue journeyed to Wilmington.

The supporters of the game, however have a rare treat in store for them Thursday at 2 o'clock, when the fun will begin. The Old Guard will measure skill with the present High School team.

By special arrangements the field has been tufted and everything done for the pleasure and comfort of the spectators. Even turkey sandwiches will be served on the field or elsewhere between quarters, unless the interest becomes so great that all have no appetite.

The game will be interesting from the start, as the Old Guard is composed of all stars of former years. While the younger team is composed of stars of lesser magnitude in weight only. The teams go into the contest with the best of spirit.

The Old Guard hope to show the younger men how they used to defend the White and Blue. While the younger team confidently expect to show the Old Guard a few new points in this famous game.

This game will be better than pepsin to assist digestion, and will cost less.

Admission—males 25c; ladies 15c. The line-up will be as follows:

The Old Guard—Eden Adams, L. E.; Sam Maddux, L. T.; Ray Dier, W. Craig, L. G.; Glen Murphy, Tim Glascock, C.; Stan Haggerty, R. E.; Gus Armbrust, R. T.; Glenn McCoy, M. Hopkins, R. G.; Frank Reid, R. H.; A. Campbell, F. B.; P. Blessing, L. H.; K. Kyle, Q.; subs, Karl Reid, R. Willis, L. Saxton.

W. H. S.—Too numerous to mention individually, come and behold them.

Hibben Ervin
Dies Suddenly

Mr. Hibben Ervin, prominent citizen, genial gentleman, loyal friend, is dead. The noon hour brought this sad news to the community with the force of a terrible shock. But Tuesday Mr. Ervin was seen by his friends in apparent health, and giving them his customary kindly greeting.

About midnight he had an attack of stomach trouble, from which he has suffered occasionally, and at half past eleven o'clock Wednesday morning died from heart failure.

Dangerous Fire in Sabina

Center of Business District Threatened by Midnight Fire Which Damages Commercial Hotel and Business Rooms.

The main business part of Sabina was threatened by a fire at 1:30 a. m. Wednesday morning, when a blaze caused $500 damages in the Commercial hotel and business rooms beneath.

The blaze originated from a steam heating plant, and several rooms were damaged by fire and water. Only prompt action upon the part of the fire fighters saved a loss of many thousands of dollars, as the high wind might have caused the fire to spread throughout the town.

Under the hotel is the Ed Perrill grocery, Peerless drug store, 5c and 10c store, and the hotel lobby. The drug store probably suffered the worst damage of all the business rooms.

A great deal of excitement was occasioned by the fire, and some of the hotel guests made their escape scantily clad.

daughter, Mrs. Joseph P. Bailey, is beyond the power of words to express. A rarely devoted husband and father, his loss leaves them indeed inconsolable and the great sympathy of their many friends can help but little.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin were planning to spend the winter in California and expected to start Westward the middle of this month.

Mr. Ervin was about 60 years of age and has been actively identified with Washington's business and farming interests for over 25 years. He was an active Republican and has been honored by election to hold positions of trust in the county.

Warm hearted and generous with his influence always thrown for the best in Washington's moral and civic life, Mr. Ervin's death is one which affects the community and brings genuine sorrow to many friends all over the county.

Theater Attractions
At Hartman Theater

Mr. Walker Whiteside will open an engagement of three nights and a matinee at the Hartman theater, beginning next Monday evening, December 4th, appearing in "The Magic Melody", which he has been presenting with undiminished success. "The Magic Melody" is attractive in story and character. Its author, Gordon Keen, has contrasted the passion for riches, and devotion to art, the exponent of the former being a multi-millionaire of merciless system, and that of the latter, being a young musician who thinks more of his violin than he does of either money or fame. As the result of a contention into which these two exponents are drawn, they are ultimately brought together through the revelation that they are father and son. The play is simple in construction and movement, quaint and human in sentiment and character, and presents Mr. Whiteside in one of the most natural, finished and artistic performances he has yet essayed. None of his many admirers could ask for a more delightful colloquial impersonation than he is now credited with giving, and his engagement in Columbus will prove a decided pleasure, and an artistic event too seldom enjoyed here.

Ohio State Reunion

Ohio State students are coming home wild with enthusiasm over the Ohio State reunion to be pulled off December the first, the Fayette county reunion to be celebrated with a banquet at the Cherry Hotel Friday evening.

A special number for the Alumni Forward Movement of the "Ohio State Lantern," the Ohio State university paper, is out boasting what will be the greatest assembly of Ohio State graduates in the history of the school. It will be the vital spark to arouse men of the earlier classes and students of today to a common zeal and interest in the great workings of the university.

From 40 meeting places over the state comes the word, "We are ready for December 1st and the Ohio State Reunion. Bring on the big show." Earl Barnett, Ralph Penn and Fred West compose the Alumni committee of the Fayette county reunion, and Frank L. Thompson, chairman of the Students' committee.

The program, a facsimile of those to be used at every reunion of the state, is made up of popular class songs and yells and Prof. Gebhart delivers an address.

Every Ohio State man in the county is expected to be present.

Locked in Jail
Couldn't Get Out

An amusing incident occurred at the county jail Tuesday evening when Walter Dale, employed as usher at the Wonderland theater, accompanied two or three other boys to the county jail to visit Thurman Palmer who is serving a jail sentence.

The boys were allowed to enter the jail and talk with Palmer. This was about six o'clock, and Walter was due at the Wonderland before seven. Sheriff Nelson was busy and the boys were allowed to remain locked in the jail until 7:30 before they were released.

Meanwhile young Dale's absence from duty was causing considerable inconvenience, and just as all hopes of seeing him during the evening had been given up, he rushed in, out of breath, and explained that he had been "in jail." Next time he will be more careful about "going to jail."

Mr. Everhard cannot think that the dog was deliberately stolen, but he has as yet found no trace of him.

As usual, We can't begin to enumerate. Would not know where to begin and where to end.

But we have the whole line, and will be open awhile Thursday morning to supply the "trimmin's" or something else that you may have overlooked or forgotten.

As previously announced this ware retails at prices ranging from $7.50 up. It is splendid for the price and pleasing to the eye. The decorations are burned in and will not fade or wash off. Almost any housewife would be pleased with a set.

The Herald Publishing Co. is not handling these dinner sets for profit. On the large number of sets taken by our subscribers we have not made a penny, but we have made friends and the name of The Daily Herald has been carried into a great many more Washington homes.

We have just received another shipment of dinner sets and have four patterns to select from. Nearly all of these dishes are sold, but we will hold one set of each pattern for the inspection of intending purchasers.

Our next order will be sent to the pottery on Monday next, December 4, which will insure delivery before Christmas.

Until that day we will continue to take orders for $3.00 in cash and 75 coupons clipped from The Daily Herald.

All who desire a set of these dishes at this price must order them before next Monday evening, December 4, paying at least $1.00 down. The balance, $2.00, can be paid upon arrival of the dishes. Coupons will be published in The Daily Herald each day until December 31, 1911.

Orders given by next Monday evening will be filled upon arrival of dishes whether the purchaser has the required number of coupons or not.

AFTER NEXT MONDAY DEC. 4, all orders taken for these dinner sets will be at $5.00 each, cash with order, upon the payment of 3 months' subscription to The Herald. A dinner set will be given for $4.00 upon payment of 6 months' subscription. HERALD PUB. CO.

In order to please the readers of The Daily Herald we have for several weeks been giving a 41-piece dinner set of hand-decorated, semi-vitreous ware, with 75 coupons cut from the paper and $3.00 in cash. Quite a number have realized the golden opportunity thus presented.

Sheriff of Pike Makes Arrest Here

Sheriff Andy Given, of Pike county, came to this city Tuesday afternoon in search of Lincoln Nantz, a farm laborer, who was wanted in Pike county for non-support of minor children.

It was ascertained that the man had been working for James Kellar, on the Morris farm near Selden, but when Sheriff Given, who was in an auto, reached the Kellar residence and was met at the door by a woman, who, when asked if Lincoln Nantz was about, stated that he was not,
and had not been working for Kellar
for several days.

The story did not listen good to the sheriff, and he made a search of the premises, locating his man in a bed room where he was concealed, and where the woman must have known that he was in hiding.

Sheriff Given took his man back to Pike county where he must face the charge against him. Nantz had been working for Kellar for some time.

A MAIL CARRIER'S LOAD

Seems heavier when he has a weak back and kidney trouble. Fred Deuh-sen, Mail Carrier at Atchison, Kan., says: "I have been bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and had a severe pain across my back. Whenever I carried a heavy load of mail, my kidney trouble increased. Some time ago I started taking Foley Kidney Pills and since taking them I have gotten entirely rid of all my kidney trouble and am as sound now as ever." Foley Kidney Pills are tough in action and quick results.
Try them. Blackmer & Tanquary.

SURE TO BREAK THIRD TIME

Man Knew What His Spectacles
Would Do, So He Got Ahead
of Fate.

A jeweler in Brooklyn recently showed the humorous phase of superstition as it troubles some people.
"A man came into my store with a pair of spectacles he had dropped on the floor and broken," he said. "I have an optician with me. A price was given for the repairs and the work was done. When the glasses were delivered the customer said he'd been pretty lucky with them; this was the first time in three years they had been broken.
But the next day he came around again. He had dropped them and they had broken within ten hours after they had been fixed.

"I want you to make a good job of it," he told me, "so they won't break
again."

"He said he would call for them when he did and when they were given to him he asked if I had a glass paperweight or something the least bit heavy. My medium-sized hammer was handy and I asked him if that would do, wondering what he wanted them for. He took the hammer from me and laid the spectacles on the floor.
Then he took the hammer and hit the offending lens a hard blow. There, he said, as he straightened up, with the pieces in his hand, 'I've fixed that.
Now will you kindly repair them
again?'"

"Naturally, I wanted to know why he had done this.

"Superstition," he replied. "I've already broken them twice and there was sure to be a third time. I've brought that third time about so I wouldn't have to lose more time than necessary. Now if you will have them fixed I guess they'll never break
again!"

HOW HE EVOKED THE WINDS

Captain of Becalmed Vessel Was Driven to Desperate Sacrifice,
But It Succeeded.

The ship had lain becalmed in a tropical sea for three days. Not a breath of air stirred the mirror-like surface of the sea and the sails hung limp from the yards. Like drapery carved from marble.

The captain resolved to wait no longer for wind. He piped all hands on deck and requested all passengers to come forward.

"I must ask all of you," he said, "to give me every match you have."

Wonderingly, all obeyed. The captain collected every match on the ship in this manner. Then he threw them all overboard—all but one.

Then he took his pipe from his pocket and filled it with tobacco. As crew and passengers looked breathlessly on, he struck that one match—the only one aboard—and attempted to light his pipe with it.

Instantly a furious gale swept over the deck. It extinguished the match, but filled the sails and the good ship plunged merrily forward on her course again. The sacrifice had been awful, but successful.

Wanted a Chance.

One of the performers at Proctor's this week relates an incident that occurred in a western town where he was playing an engagement. There was an act on the bill in which a policeman had to chase a thief across the stage without catching him. The cop's part was so simple that it was always given to some employee of the house. There was a "prop" man in that town to whom this little task was assigned and he felt like a real actor. In the middle of the week's stand, just before the act was to go on, the "prop" man said to the player who had the fugitive business:

"Say, mister, let me catch you tonight, will you?"

"Why so?"

"Well, my girl is in the audience tonight."—Newark (N. J.) Star.

Inventor of Ice Cream.

"I am looking for some means of verifying a statement that is printed at the bottom of the bill of fare in a colored people's restaurant that I visit once a month," a gas collector said.
"In a red-letter footnote the proprietor calls attention to the excellence of his own home-made ice cream; then he adds that all members of the race ought to eat ice cream because it was invented by a colored man named Jackson. So sure does he seem of his facts that he relates circumstances attending the evolution of ice cream from plain custard. The narrative sounds convincing, but colored people are so ready to vaunt the real and reputed achievements of the race that the ice cream legend may require verification."

As to Giving the Bride Away.

One pastor objects to the bride's father giving her away; she should be perfectly free, he argues, like the groom who gives himself away.

"Is the bride," he continues, "a bag of potatoes, that she should be given away?" No, sir, she is not; nobody's giving bags of potatoes away these days. As between potatoes and daughters a father would hesitate but little before deciding to give away the daughter.—Detroit News.

Indication of Interest.

"The school mistress is interested in you, dad."
"How's that?"
"Why, today, after she'd told me six times to sit down and behave myself, she said she wondered what kind of a father I had."—Judge.

Pathetic Case Of Suffering

Every person has something for which to be thankful. But some people have a great deal more to be thankful for than others. It is the way of the world. It has always been so and will be the same until the end of time.

Least some of the more fortunate may consider themselves unfortunate and not entertain the proper thanksgiving spirit as it should be entertained, the recital of a little story taken from real life right here in our own prosperous community, will not be amiss.

Little Roy Moberly, not quite ten years old, is a member of a family of seven children, the oldest of whom is 15 years. The father is a hard working farm laborer, but is in poor health. The little mother is kept busy looking after her flock.

The family of nine live in a very dilapidated little hut, nine by sixteen feet, containing one room, in which the family live, eat and sleep.
Two beds form a means of rest at night. All of the few furnishings are very crude, and often the children are without enough to eat and wear. The cramped, unwholesome and unhealthy condition of this little home, which is now about to pass through Thanksgiving, can not be fully pictured or described in words.

It is upon one of the two scantily furnished beds in this home that little Roy passes his days and his nights
—the days which are endless to him, and the nights even longer and torturous than the weary days. Roy is ill. He is a sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism, and the deep circles about his eyes, and his little shrunken face and body tell the story of days and weeks of incessant and almost unbearable pain. His surroundings are conducive to the ailment from which he suffers.

Notwithstanding his surroundings and sad plight, the little fellow displays a cheerfulness remarkable in the extreme, and this never gives way until the pain becomes so great that he can no longer withstand the torment, and he cries himself to sleep, regardless of his misfortune and af-liction he carries a spirit of thankfulness that is a shining light to all.

But Roy and his brothers, and sisters, father and mother, are going to have a glorious Thanksgiving, although they are not aware of it, for their neighbors have been preparing a bounteous Thanksgiving dinner, together with articles of wearing apparel and other things mostly needed.

This is a true story, and one from which a lesson in thankfulness may be drawn by every reader.

Thanksgiving

IF YOU are grateful, say so. Thanksgiving is only half-thanking if it blossoms into expression. Learn a lesson from the noble-hearted Indian, in whose village the missionary, passing through, had left a few pages of the gospel in the Indian tongue. Our Indian read and rejoiced. Measuring the missionary's footprint, he fitted it with magnificent moccasins, and traveled 200 miles to give them to the missionary as an expression of his gratitude. Thus the missionary was enriched by the present, but the Indian was enriched by the thanksgiving.

The best thanksgiving is a happy heart. Blossoms mean nothing on a dead stick. Once when the czar visited Paris the ingenious French, it being winter, fastened to the bare boughs of the trees innumerable paper flowers, very pretty as a spectacle, but very unworthy as a symbol, since they were false. Our praise will be quite valueless unless it is rooted in the daily life.

Train yourself to be grateful for the common blessings. There had been a great cotton famine in Lancashire, England. For lack of material to work upon, the mills had been idle for months, and there was great distress among the operatives. At last came the first wagon-load of cotton.

the earnest of returning opportunity to labor. With what new eyes did the people look upon that commonplace material! They met the wagon in an exultant procession. They hugged the bales. At last, moved by a common impulse, they broke out in the noble hymn, "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow." There are in every life a thousand blessings, now little noticed at all, of which if we were deprived, their return would be welcomed with equal transports.

But the going does not excuse us from the sending any more than sending excuses us from going. If giving still went by the rule of the tenth, as in the scriptural days, then ten average Christians could anywhere constitute themselves into a church and support a pastor; and twenty could support both a pastor and a missionary.

No work is done at its best until it is done in an atmosphere of thanksgiving. Beethoven understood this. He had his piano placed in the middle of a field, and there, under the smiling sky, with birds singing around him, flowers shining and grain glistening in the sun, the musician composed some of his great oratorios. Few of us can take our work into the fields, though all of us would carry lighter hearts if we would live more out of doors; but we can all of us surround our work with cheery atmosphere which our Father has breathed into all his works.

Thanksgiving

"For the sunshine and the rain,
For the dew and for the shower,
For the yellow, ripened grain,
And the golden harvest hour,
We bless Thee, oh, our God!"

"For the heat and the shade,
For the gladness and the grief,
For the tender, sprouting blade,
And for the nodding sheaf,
We bless Thee, oh, our God!"

"For the hope and for the fear,
For the storm and for the peace,
For the trembling and the cheer,
And for the glad increase,
We bless Thee, oh, our God!"

"Our hands have tilled the sod,
And the torpid seed have sown;
But the quickening was of God,
And the praise be His alone,
We bless Thee, oh, our God!"

Growing Reminiscent Now.
Teacher dear, in defining the word "reminiscent" told the class:

"Reiniscent" means something that calls up memories of things and incidents that have gone before—something that brings a previous fact before us."

Yesterday she asked the class to define "reminiscent," when the little wise boy answered:

"Turkey."

The Thanksgiving Turk.
At midnight, in his guarded coop, The Turk sat, dreaming of the hour, When loud the dinner bell should ring With all its most insistent power.

The boarders also dreamed of him. And how, for something like two weeks, They'd be reminded of the Turk In hash, which sometimes almost speaks.

Two Losers.
"I lose money on every meal," complained the Landlady.

"So do I," asserted the Captious Boarder.

Whereupon they glared at each other for some moments.

Hetteshelmer is the jeweler that sells "South Bend Watches."

(Thanksgiving Day, 1711.)

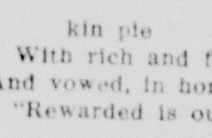

They got the turkey from the woods.

The pumpkin from the field; They sang with praise of heavy crops.

And blessed the splendid yield.

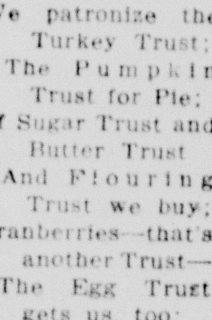

They baked the luscious pumpkin pie

With rich and flaky crust, And vowed, in honest thankfulness,

"Rewarded is our trust!"

(Thanksgiving Day, 1911.)

We patronize the Turkey Trust; The Pumpkin Trust for Pie; Of Sugar Trust and Butter Trust And Flouring Trust we buy;

Cranberries—that's another Trust—The Egg Trust gets us, too;

The Railroad Trust brings many things

From other Trusts to view. We ring the Trust-made dinner bell—The Vlands are discussed—

We bow in Chair Trust seats, and vow:

"Rewarded is each Trust!"

The Resemblance.

"Yes, we call that old gobbler Abdul Hamid," said the farmer.

"Indeed?" we commented. "And why, pray?"

"Because he is the old Turk in the lot that we will not be able to get any money out of."

Truly, we might have foreseen this, had we noticed the copy of the funny weekly in his pocket.

Where Were the Dashes?

"This turkey has dots all over it," complained the purchaser to the Ingenious Farmer from whom he had made the purchase.

"Blame it!" exclaimed the Ingenious Farmer, with an air of childlike simplicity. "I told Marthy las' summer that she hadn't oughter let them turkeys roost on them telegraph wires."

A Little Problem.

If a marketman buys a turkey for 13 cents a pound and sells it for 18, and his hand weighs 4 pounds and the turkey weighs 12, what is the man's profit?

TIME LIMIT CALLED

Due Notice Herewith That Venerable Examples of Humor Must Be Laid on the Shelf.

For the benefit of a number of people who are burdening the mails with hilarious things about the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons, we beg to mention the following themes, which are now barred by the statute of limitations:

"Thankful that I am not the turkey."

"Got nothing in my stocking until I put it on."

"Poems about the soldier boy so far away, who weeps over his hard tack and sees visions of the folks at home."

(Like as not he has foraged a better dinner than he ever got at home and has won all the money in his mess at poker.)

"Anything and everything about calling the doctor on the day after Christmas." (This joke has appeared regularly since 1774 and should have been superannuated fifty years ago.)

"Boardinghouse turkey. Consists of neck and giblets." (The average boardinghouse turkey also has wings.)

"Turkey appearing in hash for three weeks." (Turkeys are not elephants.)

"Kissing old maid by mistake under mistletoe." (Nothing of the kind ever occurred.)

"Any combination of colored man, farmer's dog and hen coop." (This idea has been worked over until it is old enough to appear in London Punch.)

"All allusion to the sultan, to the partition of Turkey, and to the combination of Greece and Turkey." (Let the poor man alone in his troubles.)

A Thankful Spirit

"It is turkey today, And the feathers tomorrow."

There's only a step From rejoicing to sorrow.

Tomorrow we want What today we rejected; And tomorrow we miss What today we expected.

It is only a step From rejoicing to sorrow; But only a day To a gladder tomorrow.

The smiles and the tears Are uncertain and fickle, But there's turkey to eat And the feathers to tickle.

It's as well to be glad With the joys of the present, And not look ahead To tomorrow's unpleasant.

For smiling is free, But our troubles we borrow With "It's turkey today And the feathers tomorrow."

JOY IN LIFE IS EASILY RESTORED

Despite Evil Results of Rush and Bustle Energy Can Be Brought Back.

The rush and hustle of American life is a constant strain on both mind and body. Gradually the human machine wears out under this unnatural strain and nervous debility results. Statistics show that half the people of the United States are in a run-down, nervous condition.

A man or woman in this condition can get little happiness or success out of life. They feel tired all the time, have no energy or ambition and are gloomy, timid and despondent. They do not sleep well or eat well or feel well and life instead of being a pleasure seems more like a burden.

Are you one of these half sick, listless, nervous people? If you are you know that there is a tonic now being sold that has brought back the old energy and pleasure in life to thousands who have tried it. The name of the tonic is Tona Vita. It is being introduced in this country by a number of physicians. It has been pronounced the greatest medicine ever before sold to the public. In each city there is an agent for Tona Vita who will refund the purchase price if the tonic fails to give you complete and entire satisfaction. Let Tona Vita build you up and bring back your strength and vitality. You will be astonished how quickly it acts. The very first dose will convince you what a great medicine it is.

Lee's Rhubarb Laxative is used as an assistant to Tona Vita in cases of chronic constipation. It is a family medicine pleasant to the taste, containing the splendid laxative qualities of rhubarb. Ask your physician about rhubarb and see if he does not tell you it is the best possible laxative for children.

Brown's Drug store have the agency for these two great medicines in Washington Court House, O.

SHIPS TO INTERNATIONAL

M. Mart McCoy shipped Tuesday to the International Fat Stock show in Chicago eight head of fat cattle, some as fine as he has ever shown.

Mr. McCoy goes on to Chicago the last of the week.

SIX YOUTHS ARE CONVICTED MURDER CHARGE

Four to Die and Two Serve Life Sentences For Murder.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Four boys were found guilty of murder in the first degree and sentenced to death and two others were sentenced to life imprisonment by a jury for the murder of a truck farmer on the outskirts of the city a month ago.

The four sentenced to death are Ewald and Frank Shilbawski, A. Phillip Sommerling and Thomas Schultz. The two sentenced to life imprisonment are Frank Kita and Leo Suchanski, both 16 years old. None of the four on whom the jury visited the death penalty is of age.

Jury Secured In Gilsdorf Case

Late Monday evening a jury was secured after considerable difficulty to ascertain whether or not Charles Gilsdorf was sane or insane.

John Haggard of this city, who was called to Chillicothe as a witness, was excused Monday afternoon, until the jury could be obtained. He returned to this city, but went to Chillicothe again Tuesday morning to testify as to Gilsdorf's conduct while he was under arrest here.

In his opening statement to the jury, counsel for the defense, Blosser, said that a number of the ancestors of Gilsdorf were epileptics.

Postmaster Culhan To be Reappointed

Postmaster John H. Culhan, who has very efficiently served four years, or one term, at the head of the Washington postoffice, has been recommended for re-appointment by Senator Burton.

Postmaster Culhan had the endorsement of the Republican Central committee and a splendid record in the service. There seems to be no doubt about his re-appointment being confirmed within the next few days.
